UDOBO SCHOOL OFFERING: The Udobo Pre-school in Durban, South Africa prepares students for their public school education—especially those who are financially impoverished. Julie Perkowski got to visit the school over ten years ago and can attest to the positive impact on its students. We have been collecting a Christmas Eve Offering annually to provide supplies, facility upgrades, resources for salaries and scholarships, etc. We would like to collect a “Christmas In July” Offering on July 24 and 31 for the Udobo School to help provide resources as they get ready for their next school year. You can make a gift online at www.FaithUMC.US, through the offering plate, or by mailing a check to the church. Please mark Udobo School on your gift and we will route it to the school to support its ministry to kids.
